GOOD FOR ALL EXPRESS

Welcome to Good For All Express 2020! We are thrilled to welcome you to a power-packed 24 hours of teaching, laughter, encouragement, connection, and plenty of fun.

2020 has refined us in so many ways, especially in showcasing the things that matter above all else—things like sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ, connecting with our neighbors, and crossing cultural barriers.

But you know what I've found is just as essential? Rest and refreshment. We hope to offer both in abundance today! Have some fun, take the time you need, gain some fresh insight. Then let's go out there and spread the love and joy of Christ.

With joyful anticipation,

Quintin Stieff Lead Pastor, Valley Church

Brandon has written for Children's Ministry Magazine, Group Magazine, and youthministry.com. Four of his favorite things are Jesus, his wife, Chicago Style Pizza, and fighting off their three boys with sweet ninja moves.

Christianity always flourishes most as a life-giving minority, not as a powerful majority.

It is through subversive, countercultural acts of love, justice, & service for the common good that Christianity has always gained the most ground.

BREAKOUTS

FRIDAY 10:10 AM

FOUR RHYTHMS FOR SUSTAINED EMOTIONAL, SPIRITUAL, & RELATIONAL HEALTH

REBEKAH LYONS AUDITORIUM*

This session will explain how the input rhythms of REST and RESTORE equip us to thrive in the output rhythms of CONNECT and CREATE, to love our neighbors and collaborate in kingdom purpose and callings.

EQUIPPING ALL BELIEVERS FOR ORGANIC OUTREACH -THE FOUNDATIONS OF EVANGELISM

KFVIN & SHFRRY HARNFY

CHAPFI*

The starting point of effective outreach is a heart deeply in love with God and with people. Without love, no outreach strategy will work. With God's love, we can change the world. Evangelism is not a spectator sport. We are all called to get into the game. God invites every follower of Jesus to get off the sideline and onto the field.

FRIDAY 11:10 AM

FOUR ESSENTIALS FOR LOVING YOUR NEIGHBOR RICKY IENKINS AUDITORIUM

Jesus has called us to pursue the people around us for the sake of the Gospel. But what does that look like? In this breakout, we'll uncover four essential features of gospel relationships that Jesus used with his own disciples. What lesus did then is what he empowers us to do now!

FOUR WAYS TO LEAD IN OUR CULTURAL MOMENT CHAPEL* GABFIYONS

Asking the right questions is critical to solve problems. The Christian faith has much to offer to our current cultural moment, but Christians must have the wisdom to discern how to engage. From understanding the roots of conviction, confrontation, and creativity, Gabe will inspire participants to use the talents and gifts God's given them to bless the world.

FRIDAY 1:30 PM

LOVING ACROSS THE LINES OF DIFFERENCE: RACE, SEXUALITY, & POLITICS

SCOTT SAULS AUDITORIUM*

The troubling dynamic of outrage – of "trusting in ourselves that we are right, and treating others with contempt" (Luke 18:9) – is as old as time. In today's climate, outrage is especially rampant around contested issues such as race, sexuality, and politics, just to name a few. In this seminar, Scott Sauls will help us examine the counter-cultural way of Jesus in a culture that is turning in on itself. Specifically, we will look at how gentleness, which is a fruit of the Spirit as well as a word Jesus used to describe himself, can become our "secret weapon" in an age of usagainst-them.

EQUIPPING ALL BELIEVERS FOR ORGANIC OUTREACH - THE FRUIT OF EVANGELISM

KFVIN & SHFRRY HARNEY

CHAPEL*

Spiritual conversations don't have to be forced and uncomfortable, they can be a natural part of our lives. God wants our faith to overflow into our daily interactions in organic ways. We all have stories of God's power and presence in our lives. There are many ways to share the truth of God's love for us with people who don't yet know him as their Savior.

SIMPLE PRACTICES TO MOVE US TOWARD LOVE

Leave your phone at home, offer the world your undivided attention

Share food with a neighbor

Make a list of qualities you appreciate about your hard-to-love neighbor

Allow yourself to be interrupted by a neighbor

Share some of your space or resources (yard, garden, sewing supplies, or power tools)

Follow up with a neighbor on something they told you last week or month

Allow for awkward pauses in conversation

Use the phrase, "tell me about..."

Throw a party in someone's honor (It doesn't have to be elaborate.)

Block out time to help your neighbor with a task

When the first century Christians told the Good News of Jesus, they began with his life of doing good for others.

We follow in Jesus' steps when we start in the very same way.

CHRIS BROWN

In our culture today we desperately need Christians to stop saying that they "love everyone" when it is an excuse to not strategically love someone.

If we really want to be the PEOPLE of God, we need to do the WORK of God, and it is there we will encounter the SPIRIT of God.

JO SAXTON

WHERE IS GOD INVITING YOU TO SHOW UP?

If there was ever a time to uncover our potential and voices IT'S NOW.

Now is the time to boldly and authentically represent God's goodness in the world, living as channels for His transformative change and power.

NOW IS THE TIME TO RISE.

JO SAXTON

You who raise your voice with your kids.

You who are addicted to social media.

You who "retail" your way out of depression.

You who question whether or not you have any real friends.

You who aren't certain your life really matters.

You with your insecurity, your brokenness, your anxiety, your desperation.

You.

You are the light of the world.

The Bible says "Be angry, and sin not." It also presents Jesus as a Lion and a Lamb, who is at times severe, and at other times tender and kind.

How do these dual imperatives and attributes influence Christian engagement in our current cultural moment?

Evangelism and Discipleship are not enemies. Evangelism and Discipleship are not friends. Evangelism and Discipleship are marriage partners.

How can effective discipleship propel believers out into the world with the Good News of Jesus?

QUINTIN STIEFF

Though we start with doing GOOD FOR ALL, we're not finished until we've shared the life-changing message of peace through Jesus Christ.

JUST SHOW UP

Y'all are equipped. You're ready for this. Don't overthink it. We hope you leave this conference filled, inspired, and ready to share God's love with your friends, coworkers, and neighbors!

ALPHA ANYWHERE: WHERE QUESTIONS CREATE COMMUNITY

AMY THORSON & LORA TROST

COURTYARD HALL

Alpha is a series of video sessions that can be used in-person or online to explore the Christian faith. Each video looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation. People are longing for connection, hope, and peace and Alpha is perfectly positioned to help provide what they are seeking. We have seen that even in these unforeseen circumstances, God can reach more people and even create communities through this ministry of Alpha even when used online.

BREAKTHROUGH! PART 1-HOW STRATEGY AND MEASURES ARE DIFFERENT AND WHY YOU NEED MORE CLARITY ON BOTH

CLINT GRIDER

EAST CENTRAL STATION

We talk a lot about strategy and potential ways to measure success, but do you really know how to use them to help your ministry realize greater impact? The difference between the two is the key to propelling your ministry toward accomplishing the good works God has set before you. Learn practical ways to bring clarity to the work of your ministry and be encouraged to move forward.

BREAKTHROUGH! PART 2 -HOW THE RIGHT MEASURES LEAD TO DRAMATICALLY STRONGER KINGDOM RESULTS

CLINT GRIDER

EAST CENTRAL STATION

God is in the business of changing lives. We know this. We feel this. But how do we measure it... without putting God in a box? Learn how to translate abstract ideas into quantifiable data to inform your organization's next steps. Bring your dreams for your ministry, and walk away with effective tools to evaluate what steps to take for greater life change and community transformation.

EQUIPPING ALL BELIEVERS FOR ORGANIC OUTREACH - THE TOOLS OF EVANGELISM

KEVIN & SHERRY HARNEY

STUDENT MINISTRIES

People need to hear about Jesus, but they also need to see him. As his ambassadors on this earth, we are to reflect his love, show his heart, and incarnate his presence wherever God sends us. By shifting our actions to be more outwardly-focused we can be more effective in reaching others with the Gospel.

FAMILY LIFE AT THE INTERSECTION OF LOVING GOD AND LOVING PEOPLE

JOHN GERHARDT

WEST CENTRAL STATION

The American family culture is consumed with comfort and creating a pathway of ease. How do we become families that are on mission for God's kingdom rather than their own personal gain? This workshop will first examine a pathway to service and sacrifice at the intersection of loving God and loving people instead of comfort. Secondly, how do you do that without sacrificing your family at the same time?

HOW THE 5 LOVE LANGUAGES® CAN MAKE THE WORLD AROUND YOU A MORE LOVING PLACE

JOLENE PHILO

EAST CENTRAL STATION

The 5 Love Languages® are frequently used by counselors and churches to help couples strengthen marriages. Those same concepts can be applied in workplaces, schools, communities, and neighborhoods to improve communication and foster strong relationships. This workshop will review all 5 Love Languages® and provide examples for using them effectively with neighbors, co-workers, and friends.

LOVING YOUR WORKPLACE NEIGHBOR - COULD WE BE DOING IT ALL WRONG?

HELEN MITCHELL

COURTYARD HALL

Most of us spend the majority of our waking hours at work, but will it matter for eternity? What if God intended a greater partnership between pastors and those in the marketplace. Make those work hours more purposeful and more God-inspired by discovering how you can fulfill your full Christian purpose in the world and in your workplace.

THE UNMUTED GOSPEL

CEDRICK BROWN

WEST CENTRAL STATION

The Gospel speaks loud and clear through our lives. Learn how you can help the church take action and start bridging the racial and cultural divide
