Questions for the Week of February 27

1. What is one of your quirks, unusual habits, or unique traits people might not know about you? We all have at least one!
2. If you were to summarize or explain your own spiritual journey in just three words, what words would you choose? Why?
3. Is there a person in your life who thinks that your Christian beliefs are nonsense, strange, or just plain wrong? How did they arrive at that view?
4. How might you build a bridge that may calm them, help them understand, or simply move them a small step closer to Jesus?
5. If someone opposes your faith, how do you discern when to speak up to defend yourself, when to take the conversation to a deeper level, or when to just “let it go”?
6. How might God use a difficult circumstance to advance the gospel in your life? in our community? with the One Life whom God has placed in your path?
7. Read 1 Peter 3:8-18. What words or phrases stand out the most to you? How are these words an encouragement or challenge to you?
