Questions for the Week of May 29

1. What stood out to you about the church at Sardis? From your notes on the message (Revelation 3:1-6), what was a notable challenge or encouragement?
2. Jesus said to the church at Sardis: “I know your works; you have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead. Be alert and strengthen what remains.” In your own life, what steps can you take to pay close attention to your own spiritual vitality?
3. What area of your walk with Christ might be in need of strengthening your faith muscles? We all have them, so you can share honestly. You might not be spiritually dead like Sardis, but where could you grow your faith?
4. How can your Life Group avoid going through the motions of spirituality and take steps to make your group stronger and even more alive?
5. In the US, we live in relative wealth and security compared to many of our Christian brothers and sisters around the world. How can this make it difficult for us to fuel a passion for eternity? How can we grow and develop an eternal perspective and increase our longing for the return of Jesus? Why does it matter?
