Questions for the Week of October 2

1. What was the last thing you celebrated?
2. Who is a person you are excited to be with? (I give you permission to share about someone other than Jesus or a family member). Share why.
3. Read Revelation 19:1-10. What are the vast multitudes and elders celebrating throughout this passage?
4. What was the last thing that God did in your life that you celebrated? What can you do to celebrate more between now and the new year?
5. Take time for each person to share a high or low as you pursue faithfulness in a faithless world. A high is something that is going better than expected. A low is a place you're struggling to remain faithful.
6. Brandon shared a quote from Andy Stanley, "Purity paves the pathway to intimacy." How is this true especially in light of this week's Revelation passage?
7. What do you need to surrender to God in order to have a deeper, more intimate relationship with him?
8. Close in prayer by celebrating the good things you see in your relationship with God.
