Questions for the Week of March 26

1. What's the weirdest or most unexpected invitation you've received?
2. In the passage or message on Proverbs 12, what most stood out to you? Why?
3. Read Proverbs 12:1. Tell about a time when you were either teachable or defensive. Looking back, what did you learn?
4. Read Proverbs 12:9. Share about someone you admire who is quietly successful.
5. Read Proverbs 12:16 and 16:23. What's the payoff of the right choices in these two verses? What's the negative outcome of being overly sensitive or not having a filter? Share one specific example how you can put this into practice this week.
6. Read Proverbs 12:25. Share about a time when you experienced anxiety. What helped? What did not help? How can your life group share good words without falling into easy-answer pep talks?
7. What's the one word you need to remember this week so that you don't give the Enemy a seat at your table? Explain.
8. Looking over the entire passage, how can these words motivate you to love your neighbor, especially the One Life whom God has placed in your path?
