

Small Group

February 18

1. Go around and share highs and lows from the past week.
2. Why do we look to the Bible to learn God's perspective about sex, instead of following what society in general believes? Is it ever difficult to follow what the Bible believes?
3. How is the Bible's teaching about sex different from what culture says?
4. What should we do when the Bible's teaching about sex is different from what culture says?
5. Boys groups only: When it comes to going against God's design for sex, what are some of the biggest temptations that boys face?
6. Girls groups only: When it comes to going against God's design for sex, what are some of the biggest temptations that girls face?
7. What are some things we can do to resist temptation? (You may want to look up 1 Corinthians 6:18)
8. How can following Jesus impact your life as you seek to follow God's design for sex?
9. What can we do when we mess up in this area of sex in our lives? What are some wise things we could do and some unwise things we could do when we mess up?
10. How can a middle schooler follow God's design for sex right now, even though you may be years away from getting married or you may never get married?
11. What questions do you have as a result of tonight? (As you answer these questions, try to point students to God's truth in Scripture first and foremost. If you're sharing your opinion, clarify that it's your opinion. Also, don't be afraid to answer, "I don't know," or "That's something I'll need to ask Joe/Rachel and then get back to you next week." Please note we will have a split guy/girl Q&A time in a few weeks where we can answer more student questions.)
